If pension is "depreciated" it seems reasonable that this depreciation should not be denied to the families of those who die in harness after a substantial period of service.

	16) In the circs stated in the above note I do not think it is necessary to consider the question of granting some kind of allce to the family of the deceased Officer. The present rules do not provide for the grant of such allces; on the other hand they state that no such relief can be given. The general point raised by the Chief Secy is an important one; the pension system has many drawbacks but the difficulty is to suggest another system which will in all respects be an improvement. I am considering this matter & shall suggest some new arrangement when the financial portion improves.

Office of the Private Secretary to H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore

2-8-28
Jan. 69 — 24

To

His Highness
Sir Sri Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bahadur, G.C.S.I., G.B.E., Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

May it please Your Highness,

The humble memorialist, (the unfortunate widow of the late Mr. Mohomad Peer who was the chief officer of Mysore Municipality and then the Sub Division Officer, Tarikere,) most respectfully begs to bring the following few lines to Your Highness's benign consideration.

Her husband died on the 31st March 1923 leaving a -- large family consisting of five sons and three daughters, all young (the eldest son being only fourteen years of age) to mourn the unexpected and everlasting loss. The deceased was such a conscientious worker that all his contemporary officers of Tarikere bear testimony to the fact that he died in the service of the State. He cared for the office duty much more than for his health, so much so, that he was working hard even though he had high fever on and this was the cause of his sudden collapse.

This sad calamity, Your Highness, has paralysed all the efforts of the memorialist as to the future of the family of the deceased and she is afraid that the education of her -- children may receive a serious set-back, if she continues to be in her present situation of hopelessly meagre means. She could continue uptil now without any aid of the State and to do so now is a paramount difficulty for her.

Being in such a situation as this, the unfortunate widow memorialist humbly approaches Your Highness with a request that she might be granted a decent subsistence/or some other allowance with which she can meet all the expenses required for the up-bringing of the young children.

Early

(9)

Early orders of Your Highness in the matter would help a great deal and for this benign act of generosity, the family of the memorialist will be ever praying to God for Your Highness's long life and prosperity of the Royal Family.

Begs to remain,
